The Midnight Dispatches.

NEW ORLEANS, Murch 23,-The Legislature adjourned at midnight last night, after having passed one hundred and twenty-three important bills. There is talk of an extra session, but it is not believed that the Governor will call one until after the May election.

The organization of the city government is proceeding slowly. The Picayune denounces all the charges against Tom Parker, which caused his rejection as Port Surveyor of this city, as false.

There is a large number of arrivals of Northern and Western railroad men in the city.

Major Bloomfield, who has been appointed Quartermaster General of Louisiana, was a Quartermaster in the Confederate army.

GALVESTON, March 20. - The 48th Ohio regiment mutinied to-day, saying that their term of service was out, and the war was over. Sixty mutineers were arrested by the negro troops who guard Galveston, and are in confinement.

NEW ORLEANS, March 23.-Cotton is animated, and prices are le higher. Sales to-day, 4750 bales. Week's sales, 22,300 bales; week's receipts, 11,600 bales, against 17,000 bales last week; week's exports, 22,000; stock, 182,000

LOCIAVILLE, March 23.—Leaf tobacco, firm and less advanced; sales to-day 140 hhds; breadstuffs, unchanged; pork is lower and heavy at $25; bacon, shoulders, 13c; clear sides, 15c; sugar cared ders, 13c; clear sides, 16c; sugar cared hams, 28c; lard, tierces, 18c; flour, superfine, $7 25; whiskey, $2 25; hard sugar, ITc.

WASHINGTON, March 23. - Attorney General Speed has decided that the Southern pensioners who continued loyal throughout the rebellion shall receive their pensions.

CINCINNATI, March 23. - Flour dull, $7 50; wheat dull; coru active at 51c; oats, 45c; whiskey, $2 23; pork nominal, $25; lard, 18te; bulk meats are higher, with sales to-day of 300,000 pounds; shoulders, 10e; rib and clear sides, 13@14c; bacon dull; groceries dull; cotton dull, 37c.

Sr. Louis, March 23, - Cotton firm, 36e; flour and wheat dull and unchanged; corn firm, 50@60e; oats, 44c; pork unchanged; bacon dull; cotton dull-sugar cured hams, 21 lc.

CINCINNATI, March 23 - The Adams Express Company have opened a temporary office on Fourth street. Three car loads of goods, valued at about $150,-000, were destroyed by the late fire. All their horses and wagons were saved.

The Enquirer newspaper company lost about $100,000; $38,000 of which was covered by insurance. The Enquirer resumes publication to-morrow.

New York, March 23 .- A special says that the Committee on Ways and Means have resolved to report the Loan bill restricting the circulation to $10,000,000 during the first six months, and $4,000,-000 a month afterwards.

WASHINGTON, March 23.-House-A joint resolution was passed for the relief of certain officers in the army, who failed to be mustered in by reason of capture or other unavoidable difficulties. The House then went into a Committee of the Whole on the Pennsylvania Reimbursement bill, which was passed by 86 to 35. The President is still considering the Civil Rights bill. He has asserted that he approves the general principles of the

An Arkansas Pather's Advice to His Son. "Bob, you are about leaving home for strange parts. You are going to throw me out of the game and go it alone. The odds are agin you Bob — remember that industry and perseverance are the win-ning cards, as they are the bowers. Book learning, and all that sort of thing, will do to fill up with, like small trumps, and you must have the bowers to back them or they ain't worth shucks. If luck is agin you pretty strong, don't cave and look like a sick chicken on a rainy day, look like a sick chicken on a rainy day, but hold up your head and make believe you are flush of trumps; they don't play so hard agin you. I've lived and traveled around some, Bob, and I've found out that as soon as folks thought you held a weak hand, they'd all buck agin you strong. So, when you're sorter weak, keep on a bold front; hut play cautious; be satisfied with a p'int. Many's the hand I've seen 'em enered cause they played for too much. Keep your eyes well skinned, Bob; don't let 'em nig you; receilect the game lays as much you; recellect the game lays as much with the head as with the hands. Be temperate: never get drunk, for then no matter how good your hand, you won't know how to play it, both bowers and the ace won't save you; for there's au-tin to be a "miss deal," or something wrong. And another thing, Bob, (this was spoken in a low tone) don't go too week's exports, 22,000; stock, 182,000 much on women; queens is kinder poor cards; the more you have of 'em the worse for you; you might have three, and nary a trump. I don't say discard 'em' all; if you get one that is a trump its all good, and there's sartin to be one prime, 20\frac{1}{2}\tau 21\frac{1}{2}\times in gold; stock, 11,300 est; never take a man's trick what don't sure to win; and if you don't, it sarves you right, it you get 'skunked." Nicholas Longworth lishes reminiscences of Nicholas Long-worth, the millionaire, from which we crown of his well-worn hat, and small paper memorandums pinned upon his generally rather shabby coat-sleeve. The chief objects of his usual charities were those utterly destitute and the least likely to obtain assistance from anybody else. He had a whimsical theory that those whom everybody will help were not entitled to aid from him, and that he would confine his donations to the worthless marin-im.

and wretched dissipated vagabonds that nearly everybody else turned away from. One of Mr. Longworth's permanent and great charities was the weekly distribu-tion at his house, or office, every Monday morning of three to eight hundred ten-cent loaves of bread to whoever would call for them. Once when flour was high, and the bakers reduced the size of their loaves, Mr. Longworth thought he would be doing his beneficiaries a good turn by be doing his beneficiaries a good turn by having them made part of rye, and thus considerably enlarging their size. His customers, however, as soon as they found it out, raised such a clamor, and called him so many disparaging names, and annoyed him so much with their threats and complaints, that he was glad to return to the pure wheat.

Once, on a very warm day, the old gentleman, having to wait for a friend, sat down on a stone just outside of his own gate, took off his hat and, closing his eyes, dozed a little; when he got up he own gale, took off his hat and, closing his eyes, dozed a little; when he got up he found a silver quarter in his hat. Whether it was put there by some one who really thought he was an object of charity, or by a wag, the old man appreciated the joke, and with a smile put it into the pocket out of which had to come $40,000 for annual taxes.
